DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

Figures 4, 6, 7, and 8 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it exceeds the limit of 150 words. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

Claims 6 and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 6, Line 7, "a communication" should be --said communication--,

Claim 7, Line 8, "a communication" should be --said communication--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 6 and 7 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim must Refer to a Preceding Claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Casey et al (5797310).

Casey et al discloses a hydraulic unit for a construction machine having a main hydraulic pump (21), first (17) and second (19) hydraulic cylinders each having a rod chamber and a bottom chamber, first (23) and second (25) directional control valves for controlling the respective first and second cylinders, a first (not shown) and second (not shown) control devices for controlling switching of the respective first and second control valves, and a communication control connecting the rod chamber of the first cylinder and the bottom chamber of the second cylinder when a pressure in the rod chamber of the first hydraulic cylinder has risen to a high pressure of at least a predetermined pressure. Wherein the communication control includes a communication line (71, 81, E) capable of bringing the rod chamber of the first hydraulic cylinder and the bottom chamber of the second hydraulic cylinder into communication with each other, a reverse-flow prevention device (45) arranged on the communication line to inhibit pressure oil from flowing from the bottom chamber of the second hydraulic cylinder toward the rod chamber of the first hydraulic cylinder, and a switching valve (41) for shutting off the communication line when the pressure in the rod chamber of the first hydraulic cylinder is lower than the predetermined pressure but maintaining the communication line in a communicating state when the pressure in the rod chamber of the first hydraulic cylinder has risen to at least the predetermined pressure, and the switching valve includes a variable restriction element (83) a degree of restriction of which varies in accordance with said pressure in said rod chamber of said hydraulic cylinder.

Art Unit: 3745

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4, 5, and 8 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. U.S. Patents 6898932, 6389953, and 5669282 each disclose a hydraulic drive unit with fluidly connected cylinder chambers.

Art Unit: 3745
